NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

The correspondent of The Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Knoxville on the 20th inst., says: On Wriday last, our cavalry, under Gen. Sturges, advanced out of that villege. A portion of our infantry, under Gen. Parks, also moved up, but learning that the enemy were in full force beyond Danbridge, they fell back to their former position. On Sunday morning, the enemy, seeing that we had drawn back our cavalry as far as possible, made a desperate strack on our lines with Hood's and Bushrod Johnson's divisions, led by the Asupton cavalry. Observing the desperate determination of the enemy, Gen. Sturges ordered Col. McCook, commanding a division of Elliott's cavalry, to charge The charge turned the fortunes of the day, which up to this time had been decidedly against us. Our total loss is about 150. On Sunday, we fell back to Strawberry Plains, six miles from Knoxville. On the 1915, Gen. Sturges fell back to Knoxville, and the same exening crossed the Holston River with the view of in- tion shows in purchasing. There are a few stocks w the 27th inst., where a battle is pending.

A squad of 10 guerrillas made a raid on the Grangs and Alexandria Railroad, at Cameron, a gravel siding, about 14 miles from the Orange and Alexandria depot, on the night of the 27th inst. They fired on a gravel train, but did no damage. They were pursued by a squad of cavalry, who captured one and wounded notice of Mr. Bryant's Poems, a notice of the

The Great Eastern was put up for sale at Liverpool on Jan. 14, by order of the mortgageos, whose claims, along with that of Mr. Parry, amount to about £110,000. The "sale" drew together a large number of persons, but the auctioneer could obtain no advance upon the only independent bid offered-$50, 000. There was a reserve bid of £130,000, and the ship, therefore, remains unsold.
